Description

Zimbabwe Stone Couples in rough stone Sculpture by Daniel Chidoti

Daniel Chidoti was born in 1980 in Mbera, an impoverished area of Harare. He still lives there with his wife Lucy and their daughter Retseuro. His inspiration for this may come from his father, who is an elder at the church, and spends a lot of his spare time reading the Bible.

Tribal Collections: Couples in rough stone

Daniel learned to carve with the guidance of his brother, Stanley, who also works as a professional carver. Finding it difficult at first to make Embrace. Carving is still one of the few remaining respected ways in which to earn a living these days. Growing up in the mountains of Benewah, his abstracts and animal sculptures, Daniel work is very well polished and gracefully simplistic. His stone of preference is Black Serpentine.
