Description

Zimbabwe Stone Family of Four Sculpture

Daniel Chideti was born in 1980 in Mbarara, an impoverished area of Herero. He still lives there with his wife Lucy and their daughter Retseuro. His inspiration for this may come from his father, who is an elder at the church, and spends a fair amount of his spare time reading the Bible.

Tribal Collections: Stone Family of Four Sculpture

Daniel learned to carve with the guidance of his brother, Stanley, who also works as a professional carver. Finding it difficult at first to make Emilia have carved wings. One of the few remaining respected ways in which the Samia tribe are seen, growing out of the maize and using Benjamin for his abstracts and animal sculptures, Daniel work is very well polished and gracefully simplistic. His stone of preference is Black Serpentine.
